

Guidelines for Positive Passions 2007

This year's challenge is to convey this message through some type of media:

"How can you be a positive influence on your friends?"

Some media type examples are story, play, song, mural, poem, essay, scrapbook, video, dance, skit, collage, art or photography. Entries must communicate the message through images and language that are appropriate for distribution to all youth and adults. Entries are judged on the content of the message, creativity, media appeal and technical difficulty appropriate to the age group of the entrant.

Please note: Any taped or video entry should not be longer than 3 minutes.

The Media Committee can help entrants develop their ideas and connect the entrants to positive mentors who can give them skills to help polish and develop their projects. If you would like help with your entry, contact us to schedule a workshop or to be connected with a mentor.

Entries will become the exclusive property of the Media Committee of the Healthy Youth Development Advisory Board. Judges selected by the Media Committee of the Healthy Youth Development Advisory Board will choose the top entries and their decision will be final. The winning entries are announced and recognized at the event held in April (date to be announced). All entries are showcased at this event.
